Due Diligence

As part of our efforts to monitor and reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains, we have adopted the following due diligence procedures and aim to;

- Identify and action potential risks in our business and supply chains.
- Monitor potential risks in our business and supply chains
- Reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our business and supply chains.

Risk and Compliance

The Company has evaluated the nature and extent of its exposure to the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in its UK supply chain through;

- Reviewing on a regular basis all aspects of the supply chain based on supply chain mapping.

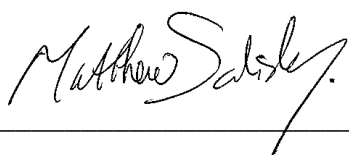

We do not consider that we operate in a high-risk environment because most of our supply chain is based in the UK and in low-risk industries.

We do not tolerate slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains. Where there is evidence of failure to comply with our procedures by any of our suppliers, we will require that supplier to remedy the non-compliance or we will cease business with them.

Effectiveness

As part of our work for the next financial year, we will be considering how best to monitor the effectiveness of the actions taken and to regularly review all our practices and procedures so that fairness is maintained.

The statement was approved by the board of directors.
